

Privacy Policy

As a general rule, this website does not collect Personal Information about you when you visit the site. You can generally visit the site without revealing Personal Information, unless you choose to provide such information through online feedback. The information received depends upon what you do when visiting the site.

Site visit data: This website records your visit logs and the following information for statistical purposes - your servers address; the name of the top-level domain from which you access the Internet (for example, .gov, .com, .in, etc.); the type of browser you use; the date and time you access the site; the pages you have accessed and the documents downloaded and the previous Internet address from which you linked directly to the site. We will not identify users or their browsing activities, except when where a law enforcement agency may exercise a warrant to inspect the service providers logs.

Cookies: A cookie is a piece of information that an Internet web site sends to your browser when you access information at that site. This site does not use cookies.

Email management - collection of Personal Information: Your email address will only be recorded if you choose to send a message. It will only be used for the purpose for which you have provided it. Your email address will not be used for any other purpose, and will not be disclosed, without your consent. If you are asked for any other Personal Information you will be informed how it will be used if you choose to give it. If at any time you believe the principles referred to in this privacy statement have not been followed, or have any other comments on these principles, please notify the webmaster through the contact us page.

Note: The use of the term Personal Information in this privacy statement refers to any information from which your identity is apparent or can be reasonably ascertained.
