Regional Apprenticeship Day – Celebration Programme

With a network of over 150000 employers in more than 1000 occupations, apprenticeship is developing a new generation of workers to help our nation succeed in 21st century economy. Of late, the apprenticeship in India has been picking up at a faster growth. With a target of training more than 4 lakhs Graduate apprentices for the year 2022-23 the main stake-holders especially the employers and the apprentices are required to put synchronized efforts.

Now, employer-led, the catalogue of programmes is only growing to close industry-wide skill gaps. From entry-level to management, apprenticeships are an investment in teams at all levels, and a transformative tool for both people and business.

Apprenticeship is an invaluable tool for up-skilling in areas that matters more to employers. They are highly effective root to recruit and train future talent, address skill shortages and develop careers across core parts of business.

NATS Helps Employers:

The long-term success and growth of any business are reliant on its people. By equipping the right people with right skills, businesses can create a future-proofed workforce to reach their unique goals. Where its up-skilling an existing employee or recruit fresh talent, apprenticeships have the power to give businesses a competitive edge with up-skilled teams. They are more popular than ever and its clear why too.

- Recruit and develop a highly skilled workforce that helps grow their business.
- Improving productivity, profitability and employers bottom-line.
- Create flexible training programme that ensure workers for developing right skills.
- Minimize liability costs through appropriate training of workers.
- Increase retention of workers during and following the apprenticeship.
